Build your confidence and find clarity

If you're wondering about your next steps in ministry – we can help.

You might be considering a move to another similar role or looking at fresh opportunities in a different area of ministry.

The Clergy Transitions Service provides professional coaching to help you explore the whole range of roles in the Church of England.

The service is run by two professional coaches who have a wealth of experience in transition and executive coaching, as well as a good understanding of the Church of England.

- Get professional free advice from career coaches with extensive experience in this field
- Gain new skills, build your confidence and explore a different role with expert support every step of the way
- Discover your strengths, interests and skills
- Get practical help with job applications and interviews

The service will also run webinars and workshops throughout the year offering practical tips and advice.

“Being able to reflect on your current path really does ready you to embrace the right position when it comes along. It was the best thing I could have done.”
